

Katherine E. Bavoso, Esq.

Katherine E. Bavoso is a Partner at Chartwell Law in the Camp Hill office. She concentrates her practice exclusively in the defense of workers' compensation claims for carrier's, TPA's, and self-insured employers. With over twenty years of experience, she has practiced before most of the Judge's statewide, the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board, and the Commonwealth Court. Ms. Bavoso is a 2002 graduate of the Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University where she was a member of both the appellate and trial moot court boards. She was also on the environmental law review. While at Dickinson, she clerked for Judge Geoffrey Berry of the 9th Judicial District in Goshen, New York and clerked for an insurance defense firm. Prior to Dickinson, Ms. Bavoso graduated from the University of Florida summa cum laude. She was a sister with the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Ms. Bavoso is rated "AV Preeminent" by Martindale-Hubbell. She was listed as a Super Lawyers Rising Star and was chosen as a Select Lawyer and a Local Legal Leader. She was named a Lawyer of Distinction in the practice of Workers' Compensation and as one of Pennsylvania's "Top 10" Workers' Compensation Attorneys. Ms. Bavoso was Chair of the Worker's Compensation Section statewide through the Pennsylvania Bar Association from May 2019 to May 2020. She also sat/sits on the Certification Committee, Membership Committee, Fall Section Meeting Planning Committee, and Stanley Siegel County Bar Award Committee. In 2020 she was chosen to sit on a multi-practice committee with the Pennsylvania Bar Association to discuss and implement policies during COVID. Ms. Bavoso has presented at numerous seminars including the Pennsylvania Bureau Conference, Fall Section Meeting, Tough Problems in Workers' Compensation, and Best Practices in Workers' Compensation. She is also a member of the Dauphin County Bar Association. Ms. Bavoso was recently appointed to the Practice and Procedure committee that authors the well-known "Yellow-Book".
