

Jared S. Childers, LL.M., CELA

Jared Childers has been with Murphy & Childers, P.C. as an attorney since 2009 where he focuses his practice solely on estate and elder law issues. Jared has been involved in the elder law legal community since 2005, receiving the Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA) designation as certified by the National Elder Law Foundation, as authorized by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, in 2015.

Mr. Childers maintains his membership in the Pennsylvania Bar Association, Elder Law section, where he is a past chair of the section. He is a board member of the Pennsylvania Association of Elder Law Attorneys (PAELA). He is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) and the National Elder Law Foundation (NELF). Jared has provided continuing legal education to attorneys in Pennsylvania lecturing on Medicaid long term care benefits for the elderly through the Pennsylvania Bar Institute (PBI). He has published several articles relating to cross-border retirement issues and speaks frequently at local community, religious, and civic organizations on estate and elder law related topics. Jared currently is an adjunct professor teaching an Elder Law course at Penn State Dickinson School of Law.

Mr. Childers graduated from Penn State Dickinson School of Law in Carlisle, PA with his juris doctorate and earned an LL.M. from New York University in taxation. He received his bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University majoring in Italian. He is married with four children.

