

STEVE RICE LAW
CARLISLE OFFICE

Fall 2026 Legal Internship

An Opportunity for Emerging Legal Professionals

Steve Rice Law is seeking a motivated and dedicated law student or pre-law undergraduate to join our Carlisle office as a Fall 2026 Legal Intern. This is a hands-on opportunity to gain meaningful, real-world legal experience in a supportive and collegial environment.

We believe the best legal education happens in the courtroom and at the client's side — not just in the classroom. This internship is designed to put you there.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

- Work directly on active cases under attorney supervision, contributing to legal research, drafting, and case strategy
- Attend court dates and observe proceedings firsthand, gaining invaluable exposure to courtroom procedure and advocacy
- Engage in direct client interaction, developing your professional communication skills in a real legal context
- Assist with case file organization, document review, and preparation of legal correspondence
- Participate in client consultations and intake as appropriate

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- Current law students (1L, 2L, or 3L) or advanced undergraduates pursuing a legal career
- Strong written and verbal communication skills with careful attention to detail
- Professionalism, discretion, and a genuine commitment to client service
- Self-motivated individuals who thrive in a dynamic, client-facing environment

POSITION DETAILS

- Compensation: This is an unpaid internship; academic credit may be available through your institution
- Schedule: Highly flexible — we will work around your class schedule and commitments
- Duration: Fall semester 2026 (exact dates negotiable)
- Location: Steve Rice Law, Carlisle Office
